PAINT LICK, GARRARD COUNTY.

-Quite a number of this vicinity are complaining with that famous old disease, the heart-sche.

-Our carriage maker has quite a flush in his business. Ely says whisky and fast horses account for it.

-A. B. Ety has the boss time-piece. He claims he has a Waterbury watch that rons so fast it kicks the casing off.

-Last Sabbath seemed to be a favorite day with our fishermen. The only trouble with some was to keep in bait.

-Our ex-Congressman, M. J. Durham. hands with everybody. He seems to be in high spirits.

-Mr. A. B. Guyn while returning from Lancaster last Monday, came in sudden contact with the turnpike. His buggy xle broke. The horse being per ectly gentle there was no serious damage done

-The farmers are very busy preparing for another crop. Tobacco raising seems to be the leading item with them. The rabbits will have to hunt other quarters as all the brush piles are being burned for plant
